

Welcome to regional Australia's most successful management consulting team. Balfour Consulting has provided management consulting services to regional Australia for over 25 years with an outstanding record of success recognised through state, national and international awards. We offer only senior consultants with extensive management and consulting experience and have access to a national network of associate consultants, allowing us to build project teams to deliver quality outcomes and project success. Balfour Consulting has provided services to major corporations such as BHP Billiton and Fuji Xerox, across Federal, State and local government departments and agencies, and to a range of small and medium businesses in rural and regional Australia. Over the past decade, our focus has been rural and regional Queensland.

We appreciate the importance of clearly understanding the wants and needs of our clients and are always committed to delivering successful outcomes that meet or exceed client requirements. Contact us (link) for further information.
